

GENAZZANO FCJ COLLEGE

Vision

A Community of Faith inspiring:

- * a passion for life
- * a love of learning and
- * the courage and confidence to serve others.

MISSION

A Christian Learning Community challenging young Catholic women to live and act with discernment through:

- * an excellent academic program
- * a quality religious education
- * an intensive co-curriculum
- * active engagement with issues of social justice

We value:

- * life as a gift of God to be shared
- * companionship with God, creation and one another
- * the intrinsic dignity of each individual
- * the distinctive contribution of women to church and society
- * education as life-long, liberating and transformative

The guiding principles in pursuit of our Mission are:

- * FCJ charism and spirituality
- * employment of world's best practice
- * commitment to community within and beyond the school
- * development of the whole person which requires a balanced, broad and cohesive curriculum.
